

20 A kind of music

Resonance, Entrainment and Morphic fields are ways to describe the magnetic attraction between vibrations which form subtle energy fields.

The shape and content of the Universe is determined by vibrating frequencies in the heart of every single atom, every single particle. All is a kind of music which can exist from seven to eleven different dimensions simultaneously. Some particles may enable us to evolve above and independent of visible, material experience.

Resonance is an exchange of energy between two or more systems of energy. The exchange is two way. This allows each system to become a point of reference for the other. A common example of resonance occurs when two stringed instruments are placed on opposite sides of the room. When the lowest string of one instrument is plucked, the same string on the second instrument will vibrate. No one touched the string; it is responding to the waves of energy that traveled across the room and found resonance with the second string.

Entrainment is an alignment of forces, or fields of energy, to allow maximum transfer of information or communication. For example, consider two elements adjacent to one another and each is vibrating. One is vibrating at a faster rate, while the other is vibrating at a slower rate. The tendency is for the element of slower vibration to synchronize and match the element of faster vibration. To the degree that the match is accomplished, we say that entrainment occurred. The faster vibration entrained the slower one, i.e. ...came into harmony with a higher frequency.

The shift is happening in earth's evolution as well as in human consciousness. This is a rare opportunity to collectively transform the identity and expression of being human. Earth is accelerating through a course of evolutionary change. Humankind, linked to the electromagnetic fields of earth, is following suit through a process of cellular change. ( Like the caterpillar in the cocoon.) The new vibration attracts us to connect, bond, weave, be at one with those we love and who love us. It is the foundation of God's table, of saving the world. Our spirits are rising and binding together in a shared and unifying way.

Today

Pigeons, swoop, circle overhead. A baby bird lies dead, unfed. Finn tootles his flute. Wind and sun blow yesterday through. Oh! ... the pink tulip erect and open.

Fresh, pure air breathes me. New green, things unseen.

Small voices of God wriggle, unfurl, deep and high, well-rooted, spear leaves to sky.

Inana Star flowers. Field/fallow, water/wait, swift/slow; adazzle/dim;

Rise and fall, open and close, flow and forage, compress and expand, silently shout.

Fragile ecology of heart and mind.

Vulnerable JOY.
